

2020 RED POPPY TASTE AWARDS

(Poppy on a Plate)

Judging will be blind, so please do NOT put your name on the disposable container.

Please bring an index card with ONLY the name of the dish and SWEET or SAVORY.

(Do not include your name.) The registrar will assign a unique number on the card and attach to each dish with masking tape.

Name (Printed) _____

Phone # _____

Email _____

Name of your dish? (As judging is blind, your name or any other personal identifier may not be used in title):

Is your dish in the Sweet or Savory category? Sweet Savory

Rules:

- 1) Entries must be edible, but can come in any form, as long as the recipe incorporates poppies in some way. This may be poppy seeds, flowers, or any sort of poppy inspiration.
- 2) Extra consideration will be given to entries that feature poppies in a prominent way. Call this "poppy-ness."
- 3) There will be two categories, SWEET and SAVORY. Entrant must pick a category upon submission. We will award first, second, and third place winners in each category.
- 4) Entries must be delivered on Wednesday, April 22, 2020 between 10-11 a.m. in a disposable container to Mesquite Creek Outfitters located at 704 S. Austin Avenue, Georgetown.
- 5) There is a $10 fee per entry due at the time of submission by check or cash.
- 6) Individuals may submit as many entries as desired. Each entry should be enough for ten judge's samples.
- 7) Winners will be announced and presented their award on the Red Poppy Stage on Saturday evening, April 25, 2020. You do not have to be present to win.

Registrar Use Only

$10 payment (per entry) received: Cash Check # _____

Unique Identifying # affixed to bottom of dish: _____